

Kenai Performers Youth Drama Camp will produce the following musical at the end of camp this summer. Two shows: Friday, June 28, at 6:30pm & Saturday, June 30, at 2:00pm. Below is a show synopsis.

Totally Awesome!

A Superhero Musical

By Stephen Murray

The Awesome family has been so successful at fighting Champion City crime that they have decided to release all the villains. Yes, General Mayhem, Corporal Punishment, and the others in the Army of Evil are free.

The Awesome family now travels to where crime fighters are needed. Meanwhile, the youngest, Annie Awesome, is at odds with being in a superhero family as she's often stuck doing not so heroic tasks. She meets normal citizen Fiona who dreams of making a real difference in the world. They sing "Only Me" and decide to trade places for the day.

What are the villains up to after ten years in prison? Well, pickleball of course! Oh! And they decide to rule the world by making everyone crazy with "Little Tiny Annoying Things." They are successful and the citizens of Champion City are overwhelmed - so are the heroes who go on strike.

Annie inspires the citizens to realize they don't need powers to be super in the song, "We Can Be Super." Together in an epic slow-motion battle they defeat the Army of Evil, thus, saving the mayor's job, protecting the tree frogs, and most important, rescuing the Awesome!

Produced by special arrangement with Eldridge Publishing Company.
